

The Toyota/Black★Star Project Parent University

presents

Gae Lauren-Schell

on

“Spare the Rod, Spoil the Child?: Effective Forms of Disciplining Your Child”

at

Humboldt Elementary School

2620 West Hirsch

Chicago, IL 60622

January 25, 2012 at 9:30 am

All Chicago parents are invited to this session.

You are invited to attend this course, free of charge, hosted by Humboldt Elementary School.

The Parent University is founded on the idea that parents are the first, best, and most important teachers for their children. This program gives parents the proper information, support, guidance and training they need to be effective in that role. Parenting certificates will be awarded after the completion of five classes in one year.

For more information about The Toyota/Black★Star Parent University, or to get a list of future course offerings, please call Jami Becka at 773-285-9600, email us at jami@blackstarproject.org, or check our website at www.blackstarproject.org.